POWER STRUGGLE

Power struggles occur on every level of society, from the world stage to relationships at work, to our own homes. We struggle for position in the hierarchy of power: Who has power over whom? How do they wield it? What is the source of that power? What is the healthy response?

In this Sunday's Gospel reading the Pharisees engage Jesus in a power struggle over whether Jews should show tribute to Caesar by paying taxes. Jesus' response puts this and every struggle for power into perspective. In harmony with the words of Isaiah and Paul, Jesus teaches us that God is the ultimate source of all power—the power of earthly rulers, the Pharisees, Jesus, the Church, and the power within ourselves.

“Active” membership at a Parish enables a person to be eligible to sponsor a child for Baptism, to receive financial aid for Catholic Education, to be married in the Parish and to prepare one’s children for the Sacraments. To be an “active” member is to participate in the life of prayer and stewardship in the Parish. All adults over the age of 21, living with their parents or on their own, must register in the Parish to be considered members. The use of the offering envelopes, or through our online donation system Faith Direct, may also help you to qualify for tax incentives. Participating in one or more of the ministries offered by the Parish is proof of the sharing of time and talent for the greater good of our Church Community. Stop by the Parish Office to pick up a form, or print one from our website at www.stbarnabaslb.org. Welcome to St. Barnabas!!!

Parish Ministries

KNITTING AND CROCHETING MINISTRY

The 5:30pm Sunday Choir will be starting a crochet and knitting ministry to serve the sick and home bound members of our Parish, as well as the homeless in our community. If you knit, crochet or would like to learn, we warmly welcome you to gather with us for this fun & unique ministry. For more information, please call Erica at 562-221-5196 or contact the Parish Office.

World Mission Sunday

There will be a second collection this weekend to benefit the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. World Mission Sunday joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith. At Mass, we recommit ourselves to our common call, through Baptism, to be missionaries, through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

As we pray and respond on World Mission Sunday, we share in those celebrations taking place in every parish, seminary, school and convent all over the world. Together with our brothers and sisters in the Missions, we offer our prayers and sacrifices so that others may come to know Jesus. In a world where much divides us, World Mission Sunday transcends borders and rejoices in our unity as missionaries! And it provides an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,100 mission dioceses.

Holy Humor

The pastor was visiting the new family in the parish. During the entire visit, the six-year-old daughter, Little Janie, kept staring at his Roman collar.

The priest finally pointed to his collar and asked Little Janie if she knew what it was.

"Yes," replied Little Janie with confidence, "It keeps fleas and ticks away for up to thirty days."

Safeguard The Children & Youth

DID YOU KNOW? In the past, child abuse prevention programs focused on teaching children and young people that their "private body parts" are those parts of the body covered by a bathing suit. Teaching the concept of "total body safety" has become the latest practice. It is important for children to understand that their entire body is private. Parents should be watchful of adults who might be "grooming" a child by constantly tickling, kissing or hugging them. It is important to listen to a child and respect their wishes if they do not want to hug or kiss someone. For a copy of the VIRTUS© article "Beyond the myth of the bathing suit," visit: <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx> or call (213) 637-7508.

Treasures From Our Tradition

What makes the Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with Children different from the others? First, there is the intended assembly, which is described as comprised of mostly children of school age. There are three Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with Children available to us now in the missal. The first one has a very simple form, easily grasped by even a young child. The second has a great deal of participation by the assembly—repeated sung acclamations. The third has a number of variations that can be tricky for a priest to handle if he hasn't prepared carefully.

All of this work does point to a true treasure of our tradition: children are part of the Sunday assembly, precisely because they are baptized members of Christ's body. By contrast, the churches of the Reformation tend to look upon children as members in training, and see worship as an adult activity. Sunday school happens downstairs while the adults celebrate Holy Communion upstairs. In a phrase, that's not Catholic. Children belong to Christ and to the assembly. So, the desire to care for the children in the assembly, to draw them into the prayer, and to adapt our rituals and texts to their needs is deeply Catholic, a true pastoral effort to help draw everyone into the praise of God. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
