Acceptance of the Passion

There is a sharp contrast between Jesus' and Peter's acceptance of Christ's passion. Both are afraid, but while Jesus faces and embraces, Peter hides and denies.

We understand Peter's gloomy darkness, and identify with the confusion and weakness leading to his failure. Like us, he tries to follow Jesus, but at a safe distance. He wants to be close, but not too close. He wants to feel he hasn't abandoned him, to be there—but remains on the fringe.

But following Jesus always leads to moments of truth. Jesus and life have a way of bringing us full circle to face our true selves. Are we in or out? How deep is our love? This time, Peter's love for Jesus fails. But like us, Jesus looks at him with understanding and gives him a chance to be honest, repent, and follow him once again.

Jesus' acceptance of his passion is our example. First, he suffers freely. He's not being forced into a fate he cannot escape. As a result, he is calm, self-possessed, in control of his heart, and patient. Second, he suffers peacefully without resentment. He isn't constantly recriminating against Judas, Peter, or John during his trial or flagellation. He doesn't seek blame or payback.

Not only is he not bitter or resentful, but he is full of compassion and focused on others: on the elderly women, his Mother, John the Apostle, forgiving his tormentors, and leading the good thief to heaven. Let's enter this holiest week following our Redeemer and imitating his example.

HOLY HUMOR

It was Palm Sunday but because of a sore throat, little Jonnie stayed home with a sitter. When the family returned home, they were carrying several palm fronds. Little Jonnie asked them what they were for.

"People held them over Jesus' head as he walked by," his father told him.

"Wouldn't you know it?" little Jonnie fumed. "The one Sunday I don't go and he shows up."

DID YOU KNOW?You can help children know they are understood

As parents, educators and volunteers, we want children to know that we are not only authority figures in their lives, but also people they can trust. To foster authentic trust with children, it is important that they know that you understand them. One of the simplest ways to do this is by repeating back what children are telling you. When you do this, you are affirming to the child that they are heard and understood. TREASURE OF OUR TRADITIONS

For many centuries, Christian pilgrims have longed to walk in the footsteps of Jesus, and on Passion Sunday the eyes of the world are on the Via Dolorosa, the “Road of Sorrows,” in Jerusalem. As soon as it became safe for Christians to worship in public in the fourth century, a way was marked out. It was changed a few times over the years, and today’s usual route was sketched by the Franciscans six hundred years ago, although Anglicans and Byzantines have their own unique detours. Friday is the most favored day, although it is crowded then. Almost everyone begins at the Lion’s Gate in the Muslim Quarter, and ends at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. It’s less than a quarter mile, but it threads its way through crowded markets with souvenir shops and fast-food snacks. There are, just as in your parish church, fourteen stations along the way. The exact spots are not known, but what matters is the pilgrim’s unique ability to see even an ordinary road in a teeming city as something more than meets the eye.

The Way of the Cross - Via Dolorosa: A sign along the Path of Sorrow

Dear Padre

March 25, 2018

Was the Mother of Jesus at the foot of the cross?

In John’s Gospel the Mother of Jesus, his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene stood “by the cross” (19:25). Moreover, Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing by and spoke to them (19:26–27).

In Mark’s Gospel, among “the many other women” watching the crucifixion from a distance were “Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome” (15:40).

Luke simply records that “all his acquaintances stood at a distance, including the women who had followed him from Galilee and saw these events” (23:49). But he mentions three women by name who visited the tomb: Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James (24:10).

Matthew also has “many women” looking on from a distance. Among them are “Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee’s sons” (27:56).

Only John records the presence of Jesus’ mother and “Mary the wife of Clopas,” who is believed to differ from Mary, the mother of James the younger and Joses, and Mary, the mother of James and Joseph. Mary Magdalene is cited in all four Gospels.

“By the cross” or “at a distance” may indicate the location allowed for spectators at a crucifixion. However, it is possible that at some point they were permitted to approach the foot of the cross, as depicted sometimes in artworks.

SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color or national and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, sex or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

POPE FRANCIS@PONTIFEX

3/16 Lent is the road that leads from slavery to freedom, from suffering to joy, from death to life.

3/15 In order to prepare a truly human future, it is not enough to reject evil. We must build the common good together.

3/14 If we encounter Jesus and our brothers and sisters every day, our hearts will not dwell in the past or the future. They will live in God's present moment, in peace with everyone.

3/13 When we allow Jesus to enter our lives we discover the secret to keeping alive the flame of our spiritual life.

3/12 Living the encounter with Jesus means allowing yourself to be turned inside out by Grace every day.

3/11 What would happen to us if God did not always give us the chance to start over again?

3/10 If we dedicate more time to prayer, our hearts will reveal the lies with which we deceive ourselves, and we will find true consolation in God.
