Good News!

September 1, 2019

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Sir 3:17-18, 20, 28-29; Heb 12:18-19, 22-24a; Lk 14:1, 7-14

Humility isn't a popular virtue! In fact, among the Greeks and the Romans it wasn't considered a virtue at all. In a sixth-century BC list of 147 wise maxims, humility isn't even mentioned. For the ancient Greek or Roman, obtaining and defending honor was more a goal than humility ever could be.

Yet the Jewish faith values humility, as seen in Old Testament texts like the one we read today. The humble strength of conducting affairs quietly and justly makes you more loved—more so than someone who gives many gifts. Parents should reflect on this.

As Christians following a Savior who was great through his service, humility is not only recommended but becomes the ideal. Let the first be last. Let the greatest be the servant. Humility is simply living the truth of who you are. You are both great and insignificant. We can and should use all our knowledge and strength to sow the fields of creation. But only God gives growth.

Humility is favored by true self-knowledge. We are creatures and not the Creator. We don't make the rules of life or define right and wrong. We discover, accept, and love these laws. A healthy awareness of our limitations doesn't enslave us. It sets us free. A humble knowledge of the truth is empowering.

We are amazingly talented people, each uniquely loved and gifted by God. Each of us can achieve, and should strive for, the greatness he offers us. Humility makes us capable of true and lasting greatness—just look at Christ.

PARISH MINISTRIES & MORE

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

Would you like to be a part of a wonderful Ministry at St. Barnabas? We are looking at having a Bereavement Ministry here at our Parish. We are searching for a group of Parishioners who have a big heart, full of compassion, and willing to help share their faith with others during these difficult times in their lives.

As a Family grieves over a loved one's passing, these dedicated individuals will assist in meeting with the Family and go over the planning of the funeral service, helping on the day of the funeral Mass and to provide a shoulder to cry on or basic grief counseling. What better way to help our fellow Parishioners, by being there to help them get through this tough time. If you have a calling for this and are interested in being a part of a much-needed Ministry here at St. Barnabas, please email the Parish Office at: church@stbarnabaslb.org with the subject line: Bereavement, along with your contact information. God Bless You.

COFFEE & DONUTS VOLUNTEERS

Thanks to the ministries who help host the Coffee and Donuts on Sunday mornings after Mass. We are looking at a few more ministries or groups that would like to help in the regular rotation, of possibly hosting once a month or once every two months. Please email the Parish Office at: church@stbarnabaslb.org on how to get involved and we can give you the direct link to the sign-up genius.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN & YOUTH

We are looking for a small team to spearhead the Safeguard the Children Ministry. Some duties may include helping teach/host the Virtus Training Classes, provide articles to post in the bulletin and more. If interested, please email the Parish Office.

Dear Padre

September 1, 2019

Life seems to be an endless grind of work, family responsibilities, and more work? Can you help me find meaning in my work?

You've hit upon one of life's great mysteries! We struggle to make sense out of our work, our pain, and our joy. There's no simple answer to your question, but let's begin by looking at nature.

Leaves fall when autumn presages winter. Cold winds howl, and spring eventually refreshes us before the summer swelter envelops us. Again and again, one season must "die" before the next one gives life. A similar process happens within us. Our work, tears, and lonely times are part of a cycle of death and rebirth. Like the changing seasons, these open us to new growth.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says: "Work honors the Creator's gifts and the talents received from him. It can also be redemptive. By enduring the hardships of work...[we] collaborate in a certain fashion with the Son of God in his redemptive work" (CCC 2427). Christ went this way before us, and he will be with us in our difficulties.

Work can be difficult, hectic, and sometimes seem senseless. But we can trust that Christ is present in these ups and downs. We can let go of anxiety and say, "Jesus, I trust you are with me now, in this moment of work or pain, and that together we will get through this."

May you find hope this Labor Day weekend amid your struggles through the wonderful journey of life.
